

SOUTH PARK TOWNSHIP LIBRARY

MUNCH & LEARNS

WEDNESDAYS @ NOON

Sept. 28 - An Afternoon of Gaelic Americana Music with Kyle Carey (CC)

Recording artist Kyle Carey's music is a unique fusion of Appalachian and Celtic, which she likes to call "Gaelic Americana". Join us to hear Kyle perform and discuss her music..

Oct. 5th - Local Author Chris Rodell (Library)

Chris will be here to discuss his new book, "Evan & Elle in Heaven & Hell: A Long-Distance Social Media Afterlife Love Story". Chris will also be discussing his eclectic writing career and various books, one of which is "Fred Rogers & the Art of Being Defiantly Kind". His book will be available to purchase after the program.

Oct. 12th - "Isaly's Chipped Ham, Klondikes, and Other Tales from Behind the Counter" Author Brian Butko (CC)

Take a trip back to Isaly's dairy/deli stores and popular products like chipped ham, skyscraper cones, and ice cream bricks with Brian Butko, Director of Publications for the Heinz History Center. His book will be available to purchase after the program.

Oct. 19th - Red Flags - Learn How to Avoid Scamming & Fraud by Cyndie Carioli (CC)

Are you worried about scamming and fraud? What are the latest SCAMS targeting seniors? How can you protect yourself and loved ones? Questions and comments ENCOURAGED! Presented by Senior Justice Advocate Cyndie Carioli from the Allegheny County DA's Office.

Oct. 26th - Pittsburgh's John Kane: The Life and Art of an American Workman (CC)

Explore the gripping story of a Pittsburgh immigrant who endured poverty, tragedy, and other adversities to become one of the world's most revered self-taught artists currently featured at the Heinz History Center. Anne Madarasz, director of the Curatorial Division, Chief Historian, & Director of the Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum at the Heinz History Center will be here to discuss the story of an artist and his art, but also of an immigrant worker and his world.

Nov. 2nd - Lovely But Lethal (CC)

Historian Dana Del Bianco will discuss the true tale of the history of WWII on the Eastern front through the eyes of Roza Shanina, a kindergarten teacher who became a sniper in the Red Army.

Nov. 9th - "Kaufmann's: The Family that Built Pittsburgh's Famed Department Store" Authors Marilynne Pitz and Laura Malt Schneiderman (CC)

Generous and powerful philanthropists, the Kaufmanns left an indelible mark on the city and Western PA. Journalists Marilynne Pitz and Laura Malt Schneiderman will be with us to discuss the story of one of Pittsburgh's most beloved department stores. Copies of the book can be purchased for a discounted price of $20.00

call 412-833-5585 or visit www.southparklibrary.org
to register this program