

FALL 2025

MUNCH & LEARNS

WEDNESDAYS AT NOON IN THE COMMUNITY CENTER
PLEASE REGISTER AT SOUTHPARKLIBRARY.ORG

September 17

Local author Michael Haritan will present info about the Russo/Ukraine war, nuclear threats to the region and world, and the lingering danger of Chernobyl-related health and environmental concerns.

September 24

Mark Fatla's book, "Pittsburgh's Historic Ballparks," covers the architectural evolution of the nine major league baseball venues in Pittsburgh, including those used by the Negro Leagues. He delves into their design, construction, changes over time, and eventual demolition.

October 1

Local historian, Chris Whitlach will discuss Steel City Heist: The Flathead Gang's Armored Caper.

October 8

Virginia Montanez is a local author, columnist, novelist, essayist, and historian well-known for her work on Pittsburgh history and culture. She is a history columnist for Pittsburgh Magazine and has written extensively about the city, often with a humorous bent, in various publications.

October 15

A presenter from the Andy Warhol Museum will discuss the life, art and legacy of Pittsburgh's most famous artist.

October 29

Tom Karolewics is a well-known local historian and storyteller, particularly recognized for his expertise on the Scenery Hill area and topics like the Whiskey Rebellion, cemeteries and more.